BELMONT CHROM

B. R. COWEN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.]

"HE WHO LOVES NOT HIS COUNTRY CAN LOVE NOTHING."

[TERMS $1,50 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE

NEW SERIES, VOL. VII, NO. 42.]

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, OHIO, THURSDAY. JULY 26, 1855.

[WHOLE NO. 967

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

Office op North side of Main Street in the New Masonic Hall, a few doors East of the Court House, and a few doors West of the Norton

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. if paid within three months,

If paid after that time,
Papers discontinued only at the option of the edit while arrearages are due.

POETRY.

For the Belmont Chronicle. A reply to "Lines" by 'Rose Elwood,' BY LILY MAY.

Ah yes! thou art blest, a bright band thou can'st Around the loved fireside of home.

And enjoy a sweet rest in both fair or foul weather, When the true spirit cares not to roam; I too, have enjoyed the same sweets thou hast tasted Have quaffe'd with the cup running o'er, Now sadly I think of the bright joy's thus wasted,

That cannot return anymore. Remember fair maiden, those ties shall be broken That bind thee to loved ones and home; Then leave nought undone and no fond words un spoken, *Till the hour of parting shall come;-With the light that first gleam'd o'er my earlier years,

I crushed back the thoughts that upsprung 'Till too late, aye 'till fond ties were riven, and tears From their fount were most bitterly wrung,

Thou art gentle and pure, unassuming and bright, To the heart's strongest impulse can'st yield; Be thy star of the future undimm'd in its light, And be firmness, for ever thy shield,

Though many applaud, with the flatteries of And hold up false emblems to view; Yet there's nothing so dear to a true woman's hear t As the love of the faithful and true,

When Religion first plumed her light pinions of lov And the banner of Truth was unfurl'd. Like an angel of mercy, sent down from above, Came Hope, to illumine the world;

If deprived of this treasure, oh, what would we Our lives would drag heavily through, Like the mariner's course on a storm-beaten

With no sheltered haven in view. Then ever press onward. though many deride, Or smile at the good thou hast done;

With Religion thine armor, and Truth for thy guide Most surely the goal shall be won; For afar in the distance where shadows arise, The bright star of Liope shall appear,

As a beacon to lure thee from doubt and surprise; Press on, thou hast little to fear. Pleasant Valley O. July 12th 1855.

MISCELLANEOUS.

CROSS-EYED NANCY HART.

of the Revolution, will be read with interest: ted by her mother to blow the conch so as to slave population will perpetually gain in rethe stream into the river. This woman was cabin, and had dexterously put out of the the masters and free laborers. The slave ing upon that country whose incapacity her of his own personal experiences: Nancy Hart, a woman ignorant of letters and house through the space, two of the five trade extended to every rea, and commerce heroism has redeemed, to sweep away those "On last Sunday evening the air was the civilities of life, but a zealous lover of guns. She was detected in the act of putting and wars kept the markets full. The code wretches who fatten and feed upon the misliberty and the 'liberty boys,' as she called out the third. The party sprang to their of slavery was somewhat like that of our ery and ruin of their fellow-meu, who, as she veiled by shadowy clouds, that I was seduced Burroughs, in reply to calls, took the floor. -- Congress with great credit to himself, and the whigs. She had a husband, whom she feet. Quick as thought, Mrs. Hart brought Southern States, except that in Rome the says, "know not what they do." Banish she into a lengthened stroll along the bluffs, He spoke of the "progressive tendency of now occupies the important and proud posidenominated a 'poor stick,' because he did the piece she held to her shoulder, & declar. slave could be instructed; and genius or ac- cries, banish this deadliest of enemies from which proudly aspire to overlook the umtra- civilization; of its strides here in the West; tion of Governor elect of this great Common not take a decided and active part with the defenders of his country, although she could not conscientiously charge him with the least not conscient now are pietred particularly to the sentiment of the market as common the one side, and the piece she held to her shoulder, & declar partiality towards the tories. This vulgar her aim was at him. At length one of them tection to the chastity of a Roman slave-girl; touch not alone the heart of England, but panoramic view, whose picturesque and vari-

in the fugitive's escape. She told them she had at first heard the tramp of a horse rapidly approaching, and had seen a horseman coming towards her cabin. As he came coming towards her cabin. As he came nearer, she knew him to be a whig, and flying from pursuit. She let down the bars, a wife. ing from pursuit. She let down the bars, a wile. few steps from her cabin, and motioned him to enter, to pass through both doors, front and rear, of her single-roomed house, take the swamp, and secure himself as well as he her business. Presently some tories rode up

THE BELMONT CHRONICLE. Cone woman. They said they had traced a man they wanted to catch near her house, and asked if any one on horseback had passed that way. She answered no, but said she other door down the path to the swamp.'

'Well, and that you shall cook for us,' said one who appeared to be the head of the party; and swore-for Nancy occasionally swore- laborers and the slaves. but seeming at last to make a merit of necesseemed in tolerable good humor, exchanging rude jests with him. The tories, pleased the cordition of the free laborers failed; they This foe, of which she speaks in such of some six or seven thousand acres, and bewith her freedom, invited her to partake of became more degraded than before; the touching language, is intemperance. The sides those many smaller farms of a section, the inquor they had brought with them, an State became divided between masters and hawkers of a poison that has worked more less or more. His landed estate is said to be invitation which was accepted with witty slaves; bot dage continued to weigh more ruin and wretchedness on earth than all oth- worth a million of dollars.

one near at hand, was just at the edge of the leader, who appealed to their religious super- on their prey. They have worked, Miss tells them he wants them to put up so many swamp, and within a short distance of it was stitions as well as to their love of liberty. Nightingale says, more havor than the ball acres of corn, agreeing if they work well to was placed a conch shell. The rude trum- The Roman State was shaken to its base, is this foul course of drunkenness confined ripe. In the fall he brings each man his tion, by means of a variation of notes, to tory records were committed. "The outra- Nightingale sank and abandoned her post of number of cattle and hegs, and says; "I will Mr. Hart or his neignbors, who might be at ges," Mr B. well remarks, "which men com- duty, she had night after night to sit up, un- pay you so much a head to feed these this and Mrs. Hart, assiduous in her attentions energies of the governing classes; it diminerto she had overcome the incapacity of for a man said not to be 60. In some respects Water was called for, and as there was none the essay, "Slavery tends to diminish the last horrors, in which under the raging His name is Jacob Strawa. in the cabin, Mrs. Hart had so contrived that frequency of marriage among masters. In a physical distemper a still fouler moral disease The following, from Mrs. Ellet's 'Women Sukey was again sent to the spring, instruc- Sukey was again sent to the spring, instruc- In the last number of his In Elbert county, Georgia, is a stream ca'l up Mr. Hart and his neighbors immediand illiterate, but hospitable and valorous made a motion to advance upon her. True the family relations were never protected, and will rause and animate to new exertion the cd beauties ravished all my senses and lost to her threat, she fired. He fell dead upon no slave's testimony could be received, exbrave and the good of every land.

Mr. Hosmer compared the female patriot, could be be to her threat, she fired. He fell dead upon the fact she herself would have readily acknowledged, had she ever en oyed an live acknowledged, had she ever en oyed an live acknowledged, had she ever en oyed an live acknowledged to her threat, she fired. He fell dead upon the fired the fourty as it existed in his boyhood—when the fourty as it existed in his boyhood with my head upon my hand, entil the fourty as it existed in his boyhood.—It is now a distinguished lawthe fourty as it existed in his boyhood as it exists a faithful type of the first and the good of every land.

I reclined upon the sum of the fourty as it exists a faithful type of the fourty as it exists a faithful type of the fourty as it exists a faithful type of the fourty as it exists a faithful type of the fourty as it exists a faithful type of the fourty as it exists a faithful type of the faithful type of the fourty as it exists a faithful type of the fait ily acknowledged, had she ever en oyed an she brought it to the position in readiness to sive act, tho' they let pass no opportunity of Hart had one eye at least upon him for a worrying and annoying her, when they could mark. Shey proposed a general rush. No do so with impunity.

On the occasion of an excursion from the fired again and brought down another tory. time was to be lost by the bold woman; she bouse, they proceeded up the country for the purpose of committing further strocities. On house, they proceeded up the country for the purpose of committing further strocities. On their way, a detachment of five of the party diverged to the east, and crossed Broad River to make discoveries about the neighborhood, and pay a visit to their of pay a visit to their of purpose of committing further strocities. On their way, a detachment of five of the party to make discoveries about the neighborhood, and pay a visit to their of the tropy carcasses to a whig wontered it, uncertainty of the gilded bar-room or the riotous royster of the upper classes became almost unknown. With the chattel bondage terrible vices and in its true form, but in the foul dens of vice that drink is to be seen in its true form, but in the foul dens of vice that drink is to be seen in its true form, but in the foul dens of vice the upper classes became almost unknown. With the chattel bondage terrible vices and the prison, to which it and pay a visit to their old acquaintance Nancy Hart. On reaching her cabin, they were about to shoot down the tories, but the conqueror kept them in their tory carcasses to a whig wond the strength of the upper classes became almost unknown. With the chattel bondage terrible vices and in its true form, but in the foul dens of vice that drink is to be seen in which facilities of inter-doubled him to take of the upper classes became almost unknown. With the chattel bondage terrible vices and the prison, to which it is the converted in its true form, but in the foul dens of vice that drink is to be seen in which facilities of inter-doubled him to take of the upper classes became almost unknown. With the chattel bondage terrible diesases set in which facilities of the upper classes became almost unknown. With the chattel bondage terrible vices and in its true form, but in the foul dens of vice the upper classes became almost unknown. With the chattel bondage terrible diesases set in which facilities of the upper classes became almost unknown. With the chattel bondage terrible diesases set in which the po entered it unceremoniously, receiving from Mrs. Hart stopped them, saying they had course to society so rotten and diseased; for, to set bounds to this deadly evil, take new ed a huge rattlesnake with gory head, quiverher no we'come but a sccwl; and informed surrendered to her, and her spirit being up to as our historian wisely observes,"Despotism, courage and gather a more persistent resoluting and writing in the agonies of death, and successful result. her they had come to know the truth of a boiling heat, she swore that shooting was too in the regular order of Providence, is the tion from the co-operation of this noble wo- sending forth from his erect tail the terrible story current respecting her, that she had good for them. This hint was enough.—

Secreted a noted rebel from a company of The dead men were dragged out of the house,

Slavery."

The dead men were dragged out of the house, King's men who were pursuing him, and who and the others were bound, taken out beyond The land of Italy, as begins now to be but for her aid, would have caught and hung the bars, and hung. The tree upon w ich seen in Virginia and others of the Southern him. Nancy undauntedly avowed her agency they were hung was pointed out in 1838, by States of America, was exhausted by Slav-ters, a conductor on the Reading Railroad, and miasmatic plains, where hardly man can great mistake, and adds. saw a boy in the water near the track, about dwell. Even in Virgil's time, "Slave labor an hour, he leaped from the care into the va'es of New-England." to the bars and called out boisterously to her.

She muffled her head and face, and opening the door inquired why they disturbed a sick, ring courage and intrepidity, is rare indeed.

She muffled her head and face, and opening the door inquired why they disturbed a sick, ring courage and intrepidity, is rare indeed.

State.

Of My God! which drew the snake's attention and caused him to turn his head, when tion and caused him to turn his head, when his brow.

State.

Ohio has moved forward nobly, and God barbarians. The large Roman plantations his brow.

From the New York Times. Bancroft on Slavery.

The new volume of Bancroft's Miscellanies, saw somebody on a sorrel horse turn out of just published by the Harpers is a book which the path into the woods some two or three has been sometime eagerly awaited by the hundred yards back. 'That must be the fel- literary world. With several of its articles, low,' said the tories; and asking the direc- we venture to predict, the admirers of the laws of the whole moral system of things tion as to the way he took, they turned about historian will be grievously disappointed .and went off. 'Well fooled!' said Nancy; Yet there is in the volume one essay worth, and thrift are sapped by it. The ruin may in an opposite course to that of my whig in our view, all the rest, which no historical come apparently from without; it may be boy; when, if they had not been so lofty. scholar and no man interested in the morals delayed for centuries; but its cause is there, minded, but had looked on the ground inside of politics can read without the profoundest always working. Who shall guard the South of the bars, they would have seen his horse's interest. We refer to the article which de- from the fate traced in these nervous words track up to that door, as plain as you can picts the influence of Slavery in undermin- of Mr. Bancroft: "Slavery had destroyed the see the tracks on this here floor, and out of ing the Roman Empire. To those who have Democracy, had destroyed the aristocracy, sometimes, perhaps unreasonably, doubted of had destroyed the empire, and at last it left This bold story did not please the tory Mr. Bancroft's sense of the evil of chattle- the traces of its ruinous power deeply furrowparty, but they could not wreak their veng- slavery to our own political progress, and who ed on the face of nature herself." ence upon the woman who had thus unscrue have feared for his boldness in expressing pulously avowed her during aid to a rebelland his convictions, we commend these chapters. the cheat put upon his pursuers, otherwise They are clear, downright and explicit; and than by ordering her to aid and comfort them gathering together the best of modern inby giving them something to eat. She repli- vestigations in Roman history, those of Nieexcept that one old golbbler you see in the Bancroft has not drawn the parallel, but it is from a letter of hers just published in Eng- him. If his customers like his terms that ends and raising his musket he shot down the He shows us in the time of the Gracchi, the tiring toil or the glaring summer sun which and never forgiving the laggard who keeps turkey, which another of the men brought "land refomers" in Italy, the Roman Repubinto the house and handed to Mrs. Hart, to lie upheld by three classes,—the opuicnt ar- of the Bosphorus that weighed dawn her enormously until he purchased and sold many clean and cook without delay. She stormed istocracy; the slaveholders; the poor free slender form. "All this could I have borne thousand a year. All the money not needed

The attempts of the reformers to improve the plague, oh it is terrible!" The spring, of which every settlement had birth, until at length under the guidance of a pest in the wake of the camp and stolen teristic. He assigns them certain tracts, and ed them from fertile grain saids to pastures, A Noble Act .- On Tuesday, Harrison Pe- and then left them, as they are now, solitary in writing from New Orleans, says this is a tilled by slave labor were its ruin. Slavery had effected the decline of the Roman penple and had wasted the band before a Scythian or a Scandinavian had crossed the Alps." A State holding such an institution withn it must rest on weak foundations. The are against it. Integrity, morality, industry

Intemperance in the Crimea.

The report from Scutari that Florence patent on every page. One feels, with some land, the cause of this illness has been cor- the matter, and if not it certainly ends it. mitigating exceptions, that he is reading the rectly understood. It is not the poison He measures out his plans weeks ahead by history and the idoom of American Slavery. breath of infection or the exhaustion of un- the half hour, never failing in his engagement with deep joy," she writes, "but to see the in the business was invested in lands, and it is "Philanthropy," says Mr. B. "when it con- stretcher brought to the gates every hour said that he has never been known to sell an sity, began with alacrity the errangements templates a slaveholding community, may have laden with men forming in the mouth and acre. His home farm contains ten thousand for cooking, assisted by her daughter, a little its first sympathies excited for the slaves; but black in the face, not with the gore of buttle acres, and a gentleman told me that one field girl some ten or twelve years old, and some- it is a narrow benevolence which stops there. but with the horrible defacement of a foe on that farm, planted year after year with corn times by one of the soldiers, with whom she The needy free man is in a worse condition." more dreadful or deadily than the Russian or contains three thousand acres, and another severely on the slaves, mostly of foreign er wars and wickedness, have followed like His mode of dealing with tenants is charac-

Britishers' or tories were about; that the furnish the strongest argument against the and paid to watch over the couch of sickness. them at my house on the first of next May." master was wanted at the tabin, or that he condition which can render human nature Until the grog-shops were started in the On the specified day his droves are coming was to keep close, or 'make tracks' tor anoth- capable of such crimes." These and the Crimea ter work was tollsome indeed, but in from all directions, and buyers from the er swamp. Pending the operation of cook- succeeding outbreaks were put down, for the still a labor of love and of hope. Her nurses East and cities are there, attending the ing, Mrs. Hurt had sent her daughter Sukey weak and enslaved foreigner was pitted a- were vigi ant and took pride in sharing the greatest cattle market in the West. if not in to the spring for water, with instructions to gainst the even yet vigorous and warlike blow the conch in such a way as would it. Roman. It was then the Italian, as now the form Mr. Hart that there were tories in the Anglo-Saxon "destiny," everywhere to governoble girl, not until after rogented efforts at cabin, and that he should keep close," with ere the weak But the weak and the oppressing the country of their task. They are now profile amounts to thousands, and the drogens are noble girl, not until after rogented efforts at ingular, this man never keeps book accounts, his three neighbors who were with him, till sed had a terrible revenge; or rather the laws fore drink come, her potients were heroes; retaining the minutest details of his immense of the moral world worked out to their na- they are now sots. Veins swollen with li- business in his memory, and filling up his en-The party had become merry over their tural result. Slavery threw the power and quor are, under the Crimean sun glare, like gagements with perfect exactness. Jue party had become merry over their lands of the State into the hands of a few; powder in the focus of a burning lens. She A few years since such protracted tasking supported her frail strength gave away.

opportunity of looking in a mirror. She was fire again. By this time Sukey had returned their masters, and probably cruelties were its doings in every spot in which it obtains it rolled away upon the cushion of springy grants-with the facts of the present; spoke but here we must let Mr. Masser speak for cross-eyed, with a bross angular month, ungainly in figure, rude in speech, and awkward gun, carried it out of the house, saying to her

States only see occasional instances. States

States only see occasional instances. States ing not what they do," engage in and sustain dem, and I was locked in that strange slumenergy; of the canal; and expressed his gainly in figure, rude in speech, and awkward in manners, but having a weman's heart for her friends, and that of a Catrine Montour for the enemies of her country. She was for the enemies of her country. She was to be the came the information increased the alarm of the enemies of her country. She was to be the came the instructors and men of science of the spring, and taking up the remaining gun, carried it out of the house, saying to her mother, 'Daddy and they will soon be here.' This information increased the alarm of the three came the instructors and men of science of the State. The prices varied much, as they would now if slaves were thoroughly trained. The prices varied much, as they would now if slaves were thoroughly trained.

States only see occasional instances. Slaves ing not what they do,' engage in and sustain dem, and I was locked in that strange slum-dem, and yet opinion that the day would yet come when ing higher aspirations, new occupies the this fatal traffic, could-follow its victims and this fatal traffic, could-follow its victims and the instructors and men of science of the instructors and men of the instructors and with they do,' engage in and sustain dem, and I was locked in that strange slum-dem, and the mergy; of the canal; and expressed his ing not what they do,' engage in and sustain dem, and I was locked in that strange slum-dem, and the missing in the spinion that they do,' engage in and sustain dem, and I was locked in that strange slum-dem, and I was locked in of her revenge for any grievance or eggres-100; a play actor $8,000; a grammarian $4,- would shrink with horror from this wringing peculiar that sent a thrill of pleasure to the of such a victory over natural barriers, and the happiest hours of life, knowing full well, 000; a beautiful actress even as much as of wealth out of the blood of their tellow-be- mind and heart, it was soothing, drawing, and declared it not one in prospect, but already if they have not reached so high a piunacle $13,000 per annum, and a physician was ings. It is not in the revel round the camp- agreeably titillating, as if the fingers were attained; the vessels might to-day load at on the ladder of fame, it was not for the want legally valued at $2,400.

fires of the Crimea that the effects of intemdissolving away in delightful self-absorption.

Ontonogan and make their first discharge of of merit or ability on their part."

Slavery prepared the way for the further perance are found. It is in those scenes Just then, from this sort of blissful abandon, cargo upon the wharves of Liverpool or British camp at Argusta, a party of tories Suky had another musket in readiness, which penetrated into the interior & having savage- her mother took, and posting herself in the herself and readiness, which have struck down the gentle spirit of the necessary and another musket in readiness, which have struck down the gentle spirit of the necessary and another musket in readiness, which have struck down the gentle spirit of the necessary and another musket in readiness, which have struck down the gentle spirit of the necessary and another musket in readiness, which have struck down the gentle spirit of the necessary and another musket in readiness, which have struck down the gentle spirit of the necessary and another musket in readiness, which have struck down the gentle spirit of the necessary and another musket in readiness, which have struck down the gentle spirit of the necessary and another musket in readiness, which have struck down the gentle spirit of the necessary and another musket in readiness.

> A VAGABOND SHALT THOU BE IN THE and appeciate its horrors EARTH.—A statement is going the rounds He told me that my resting place was the of the papers saying that "Matt Ward the top of a rattlesnake den, and pointed out the usually extended to respectable men.

A correspondent of the New York Observer,

At the St. Charles Hotel, last winter at

The papers frequently mention this wonderfully successful farmer and drover, who to the Tribune a correspondent thus tells of

In the vicinity of Jacksonville is the most is of medium stature, but his frame has been ed gun, and my sticks and stones, fought our eligible as Jurors, in "grand, petty, civil or time when he has been purchasing cattle he has accomplished the almost incredible feat evening, and that I dreamed of snakes that the wisdom of the two houses of Assembly, glance over it with incredible quickness, counting the number, singling out the average Nightingale was ill, worn out by her heroic ox, computing from him the whole drove, and ed: 'I never feed King's men if I can help buhr and Arnold, they have presented what, devotion to the duties she had undertaken, offering a price for the whole more promptly it; villians have put it out of my power to so far as we know, no other narratives have [62] sadly on a multitude of hearts on this than many would for a single ox. He has feed even my own family and friends, by done, a boldly drawn, consistent sketch of side the ocean that now rejoice to know she the reputation of being a fair dealer and will stealing and killing all my poultry and pigs, Roman Slavery and its consequences. Mr. is recovering her strength. But as we learn not haggle with those who sell and buy of four thousand. Near La Salle he has a tract a high and snaggy-topped stump, on which they burst forth into a fearful revolution - of the Russian or the stroke of disease. Nor paythem so much a busnel for the crop when pet was used by the family to give informa. and the most frightful atrocities which his- in the Crimea to men alone. Before Florence money, and then drives to each a certain work in a field just beyond the swanp, that mit when they first regain their freedom, able to trust the women appointed as nurses winter all they can eat, and you are to have upon the table, and her guests, occasionally ished the relative numbers of the slave-own-rulers, the obstructiveness of subordinates, he is the most remarkable man in Illinois, the upon the table, and her guests, occasionally passed between them and their muskets.— ers and the aristocracy—for, in the words of dirt, dearth, disease and death, but before these like of whom will not soon be seen again.

ful Position.

From his fearful propinguity I began to realize my position, but not until I heard an explanation from M. could I fully understand murderer," is in New Orleans driving fine orifices through which they passed; that he Lorses, and enjoying all the courtesies of life was in the habit of coming there on Sunday evenings to shoot rattlesnakes; that when he at Columbus. S. P. Chase was nominated or brot her would introduce him to their rela- slight, involuntary, shuddering exclamation Republican party invincible in every Free up!-quick time!-forward march!"

Jacob Strawn, the great Drover. | face and neck, mangling and tearing them to pieces, and thus saved my life. He had pieces, and thus saved my life. He had scarcely told me this, which took but a modent from the writings of Jefferson, that had ment, when rattles ah around brought us to Sam' been about in the days of this great emigrated sometime since, from Muskingum a recollection that we were not yet free from Statesman, their intimacy would have been danger. We saw ten or fifteen large rattlewith eyes glaring revengefully, barbed tongues zens of Albemarle, Amherst, Fluvanna, and thrusting threateningly, and rattles sounding Goochland counties, Va., to the Legislature noted man in Illinois, not excepting the "little alarmingly. They are brave and cannot be thereof, and drawn up by Thomas Jefferson, intimidated, and will die over the dead body in 1797, as appears by his writings, just pubkingum county, Ohio, and that he emigrated of their companion sooner than desert it. to the prairies many years ago with money We knew the indomitable character of our thor was of opinion, that none but native enough to tuy a quarter section of land. He enemy, and M. and I, with his double-barrelof immense power and toughness Somethat my nerves were slightly agitated that of riding on horseback nine successive days & night. M. has killed one hundred and seven nights with no sleep but what he got on the of them—the largest of which had twentysaddle. His judgment of cattle is almost six rattles. He says the Indians, who have infallible. He will ride into a drove of cattle, been in the habit of hunting them for many years, have killed much older ones, and have slain thousands.

Opening of the Saut Canal-, Proceedings of a Public Meeting.

return trip from Lake Superior-being the this to be one of the rights incommunicable, first boat through the ship Canal around the in future, to adoptive citizens."-Jefferson's Falls of St. Mary-the Hon. Dasiet Good- Writings, vol. 9 page 453. WIN of Detroit was appointed Chairman, and PHILIP HUNT of the same place, Secretary. Hon. John P. Hale, Senator elect from succinct history of the enterprise from the to certain charges made against his official & time of its first discussion as a practicable personal integrity in the New York Evening work to its completion; spoke of the great Post of a la'e date He says: commercial results which would flow from it, I deny these charges utterly and totally, in and rendered a just tribute to those by whom general and in detail. No man ever approachit had been carried through.

man, the following:

through its locks. Kesolved, That we hail that completion as His letter concludes as follows:

an era n the commercial and industrial history But the Post says I keep on excellent terms of the United States.

the direct result of which will be to give a that Mr. Calhoun denounced meas a maniac, new and complete development to the ca- and Mr. Poote threatened to hang me. But, pacities of a vast region unequaled in its last of all, I am a joker! Guilty, But I must dem that designed it and the liberality and to the cause of Free-Soil and Anti-Slavery. energy by which it has been brought to a The Free-Soil cause and party have a right peculiar interest as the permanent monument great cause should be-God save us from the They had cauticusty stacked their arms where they were in view, and within reach, the Constitution; and that in its banks and mouthpiece and organ. masonry we recognize the records of a policy correct in principle, beneficent in practice, and now named for re-adoption by the voice of the American people.

the Illinois for multiplied courtesies during paper he says that twenty-one years ago, the trip, we return our best thanks, and that three young gentlemen of Smithfield county, formerly known as War-woman's Creek.— ately. Meanwhile, Mrs. Hart had slipped At the time of Casar, the "peculiar insti-Its name was derived from the character of out one of the pieces of pine which constitute to the pieces of pine which the pieces of pine which the pieces of pine which the pi the woman who lived near the entrance of ted the 'chinking' between the logs of the The slaves numbered some three times both children of humanity have done before, calland a long continued devotion to the interest tice at the bar. One of the young gentleof the upper peninsula of Michigan. men, after a career of usefulness and distinc-

Several other gentlemen followed in re- the tune, when the man of war accosted marks, after which the resolutions were un- him thus:- animously adopted. On motion, it was additionally. Resolved, That the proceedings of the meeting be published.

The meeting then adjourned. CHASE NOMINATED!-The Republican Convention of Ohio met on the 13th (yesterday) approached that evening, and saw me lying as candidate for Governor on the first ballot! upon the den, he supposed I had been hitten. The whole No:th will hear of this with joy, and was dead; that he crept nearer and saw and the South receive it with sorrow It will my respiration, and knew I was alive, but chear freemen and alarm oligarchs. For this discovered a monstrous snake licking my act tells of a people in earnest, and the majoricould. She then put up the bars, ontered to drown, and notwithstanding the train was hardly wrong from Italy a return one-third so the balls, every lady who knew who he was hard and covering it with a slimy coating. ty they will give for the MAN of their choice York. her cabin, closed the doors, and went about to drown, and not withstanding the train was been cabin, closed the doors, and went about going, it is said, at the rate of twenty miles great as free labor gets from the hills and refused his hand in dancing, and no father preparatory to deglutition; that he made a in October can not fail largely to make the labor gets from the hills and refused his hand in dancing, and no father preparatory to deglutition; that he made a in October can not fail largely to make the snakes approaching us from every quarter, following remarks in a petition of the citi-

Jeffersonian Democracy.

whether the safety of the citizens of the commonwealth, in their persons, their property, their laws and government, does not require, that the capacity to act in the important office of a Juror, grand or petty, civil or criminal, should be restrained, in future, to native citizens of the United States, or such as were citizens at the date of the treaty of peace which closed our revolutionary war; and whether their ignorance of our laws, and At a meeting held on the 23d day of June, natural partiality to the countries of their 855, on board the steamer Illinois, on her birth, are not reasonable causes for declaring

Judge Goodwin on taking the chair gave a New Hampshire, has written a lettet in reply

ed me with a corrupt proposition, or ap-A Committee, consisting of H. G. Spafford pealed to me with a selfish or personal motive Theo. Williams of Detroit, the Hon. S. M. while I was a member of either House .-Burrough of New-York, Z. Hosmer of Bost- Whatever votes I gave there were the result on, and E. C. Rahm of Ontonagan, was of my honeat judgment, without the promise, then appointed to prepare resolutions who hope, or expectation of personal advantage reported through Mr. Spafford, their Chair- to myself; and I can confidently appeall to all the agents and attorneys of the several Whereas, The Ship Canal around St. projects which have from time to time been Mary's Falls is a completed work, and is now before Congress while I was a member, to in successful operation as a means of transit say if they ever approached me or thought between the lower waters and Lake Superior of approaching me with any suggestion of a it is by us, passengers upon the first boat motive which did not relate exclusively to the public interest.

with those who differ with me. The proof Resolved. That the success of an enterprise of this I suppose is to be found in the fact peculiar resources of usefulness and wealth disclaim ever having perpetrated so broad a is a national blessing; and that to the wis- joke as the Post when it pretends friendship consummation, is due the gratitude of the to expect the opposition of such papers as the Washington Union, and the N. Y. Herald; Resolved. That we deem the work one of but the prayer of every true friend of the Very truly, your obliged friend, JOHN P. HALE.

(Masser of the Sunbury (Pa.) American On motion that the report be adopted, Mr. tion at the bar, served several sessions in located himself in Schuylkill county, and is Mr. Hosmer compared the condition of the now President Judge of that important Dis-

Anecdote of Chancellor Kent.

The late Chancelor Kent was one of those Insensibly he was whistling the burden of

"You are fond of such music, then, my fine fellow!"

"Yes," was the reply.

"Well, then." said Sergeant Kite, "why not join us? Good quarters-good bounty! Besides our Captain is a glorious fellow .-Why don't you now? You can't do better." "Well," said the Chancellor, "I have one pretty strong objection."

"What is it!" asked the sergeant. "Why, just now I happen to have a better

"What trade is it?" said the inquisitor.

"I am Chancellor of the State of New "Whew!" muttered the Sergeant. "Strike

Off tramped the military man without looking behind him, leaving the Chancellor to enjoy his laugh at the adventure